

WORKSKIFF

Force Series Model

When it comes to protecting our troops and enforcing the law, the US Navy, US Army, along with state and local agencies have relied on the Workskiff MLEV series to meet their marine law enforcement needs. With its deep V hull design, reverse chine, hybrid foam collar, and varying wheel-house configurations, this vessel can be outfitted for a variety of military and law enforcement applications in harsh and aggressive operating conditions.

Contact one of our sales consultants today to discuss a solution that meets your mission specific needs.
